INTRODUCTION

This beautifully renovated farmhouse is located in a quiet but beautiful location in the centre of Le Marche. Le Marche is also called the pearl of Italy. The house is built in traditional Marchegian style and is very privately situated in the middle of the beautiful hilly landscape of the province of Ancona with views to the Apennines. A 20 minute drive from the Adriatic coast with beautiful beaches and good restaurants.

The villa has been furnished and renovated under architecture using high-quality materials, with comfort and luxury being central. The interior is characterized by a modern nod to and with respect for the Marchegian architectural style.

The entire house is equipped with custom-made furniture, paintings and designer lighting. The property is move-in ready, furnished and upholstered.
