INTRODUCTION

Elegantly positioned in the gently undulating hills just outside Spoleto, L'Aranceto is within walking distance of the small village of Baiano and has stunning panoramic views of the verdant, unspoiled valleys, fields, woods and stone farmhouses that dot this green heartland.

The sale includes a classical-style villa that currently houses the main residence as well as two separate apartments, each with a bedroom, bathroom, kitchen and small living area. The villa was last renovated between 2012 and 2015, when all the utilities were updated.

Also included is a smaller villa in the same architectural style that sits close to the main house on the other side of the sweeping driveway. Bought a few years ago by the current owners to ensure total privacy, it is in need of renovation. L'Aranceto is surrounded by a large garden, four hectares of olive and fruit trees, fields and woods. There is a triple garage and a small outbuilding.

This is an exciting opportunity to add character and value to these elegant villas in this special location.
