INTRODUCTION

Nestled amidst rolling hills of the Marche region, just a few kilometers from the stunning Adriatic coastline and the renowned beach town of Senigallia, Demetra presents a rare opportunity to own a fully restored boutique hotel that blends historical charm with modern luxury. The property offers an exceptional combination of tranquility, elegance, and easy access to one of Italy's most beloved coastal areas.

This unique property has been meticulously restored by the current owner in 2006 and the annex in 2022, preserving the character and charm of its original structure while incorporating the latest amenities and tasteful contemporary design. The building, dating back to the 19th century, is a traditional Marche-style villa, featuring fair stone walls, exposed wooden beams, and terracotta floors. The owner, with an eye for detail and a passion for preservation, has carefully revitalized the property, adding an important architectural vision in the whole property, that is clearly shown in the amazingly high ceiling living room, with glass ceiling.

Situated just a short drive from the golden sands and crystal-clear waters of Senigallia's famous beach, the property enjoys a peaceful, rural setting surrounded by vineyards, olive groves, and undulating hills. This ideal location offers the perfect balance of seclusion and accessibility – guests can enjoy the tranquility of the countryside, while being just minutes away from the vibrant atmosphere of Senigallia.

The hotel features 12 elegant guest rooms, each one uniquely decorated with a blend of classic and modern furnishings. Spacious, bright, and welcoming, the rooms offer guests a serene retreat, each equipped with high-end amenities including air conditioning, Wi-Fi, and en-suite bathrooms with modern fittings. Large windows overlook the breathtaking surrounding countryside, allowing natural light to flood in while providing spectacular views of the Marche landscape.

This boutique hotel offers a turnkey business opportunity for anyone looking to enter the hospitality industry. With its impeccable reputation, the property already enjoys a loyal clientele of international and local guests, making it a popular destination for romantic getaways, weddings, and exclusive events. The current owner has established excellent relationships with local suppliers, ensuring that the hotel offers only the best in regional cuisine and wine, further enhancing the guest experience.

The property is fully operational, with all necessary licenses and permits in place. The hotel has strong potential for year-round operation, given its close proximity to Senigallia's beach in summer and the surrounding countryside's natural beauty throughout the rest of the year.

For those seeking additional growth opportunities, the property offers ample space for further development. There is the possibility to expand the number of guest rooms, create a wellness center, or establish a small farm-to-table restaurant using produce grown on-site.
