INTRODUCTION

Nestled in the rolling hills of Umbria, near the charming village of Preggio and just above Reschio Castle, Intreccio is an architectural masterpiece that blends contemporary elegance with the region's natural beauty. This exquisite retreat offers breathtaking panoramic views, an brand new 5x16 swimming pool, and a serene atmosphere designed for ultimate relaxation.

The building dates back to 1620, as it is also shown by the original stone that was built into the property, and the property has been restored in 1995 and in 2024.

The villa's modern design is complemented by traditional materials, featuring warm wooden beams, natural stone. The spacious, light-filled interiors are impeccably styled, with high-end furnishings and curated décor that exude understated luxury.

The pool with dark grey lined is a stunning vantage point where the water seamlessly merges with the horizon, creating a tranquil oasis amidst the lush countryside. Multiple terraces and outdoor lounge areas provide the perfect setting for al fresco dining, sunset aperitivos, or simply unwinding with the gentle sounds of nature.

Surrounded by rolling olive groves and unspoiled woodlands, Intreccio offers a sense of seclusion while being within easy reach of Umbria's cultural treasures.
