INTRODUCTION

Set in the historic center of Città della Pieve, Le Volte is a wonderful townhouse with a small private garden, recently renovated, according to the highest quality and aesthetic standards.

It is spread over floor floors, to which an underground floor must be added in which an ancient cave made of tuff was found. The mix of contemporary and classic materials, lacquers and majolica, original parquet and beams, full colors that blend with soft whites and grays, make Le Volte a wonderful corner of the city that, however, offers warmth and comfort.

The private garden makes Le Volte just ready to move in under all aspects, and perfect to enjoy it in winter days as much as in spring as summer, as it can host nice al fresco dining and sun bathing too.

The vintage twist found in its interior creates a unique atmosphere of cosiness but also of elegance and the location makes it perfect to enjoy all the comfort that being in the center of a lively town can give.
