INTRODUCTION

Pò Martino is a large double farmhouse in an incredible location between Monteleone d'Orvieto and Città della Pieve, where Umbria tips into Tuscany.

The large main house is currently in a state of disrepair, but its potential is impressive. The property is surrounded by beautiful countryside with mature trees and an olive grove of 200 trees. The views are magnificent, and permission will be given to landscape the garden and put in a pool.

The property can be accessed from two sides by a private road that winds around the the main house. The extensive views include the Valdichiana valley in Tuscany in one direction, and the villages of Monteleone d'Orvieto with Montegabbiano behind, in the other.

Electricity is available at the property. Installation of solar (hot domestic water) and photovoltaic panels (generation electricity) is possible; its correct positioning will need to be evaluated with the authorities in the project set up.
